The sword opens with Aunt Polly crossing the fence in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with his work.

Tom crosses fence at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly discovers that Tom's hands are covered with jam. She asks him how he got the jam on his hands, and he tells her that he was in the yard. She tells him that he must be punished for his behavior, but Tom's half brother, Sid, tells her that Tom is innocent and that he should be punished for his behavior.

The Land: Catacombs. The village itself comes alive as his people show their worth. Fighters and smiths, magicians and hunters, Richter's people prove the old adage; 'It takes a village, to crush your enemies!' This is a world of wonder and horror. This is a world of pain and joy. This is the world that you were meant to fight for. Welcome back my friends.
