Reconciliation*

The novel opens with Aunt Polly arriving for dinner in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she has been put away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly asks him about his afternoon and what happened. Tom's father is still away from the job, Tom's half brother, that himself to discipline his Tom goes out of the house following the streets of St. Petersburg. Tom and the new arrival eventually chooses the wilderness all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.

Oh Land grew up in a musical family, being the daughter of both an opera singer and an organist. In her youth, she was a member of the Royal Danish and Swedish ballet school, but an unfortunate spinal injury she suffered during her time as a ballet dancer that pushed her into making music, as she could no longer dance.

"This Land Is Your Land" is one of the United States' most famous folk songs. Its lyrics were written by American folk singer Woody Guthrie in 1940, based on an existing melody, a Carter Family tune called "When the World's on Fire", in critical response to Irving Berlin's "God Bless America."When Guthrie was tired of hearing Kate Smith sing "God Bless America" on the radio in the late 1930s ...
