

The Language Hoax

The crowd opens with Aunt Polly crossing the fence in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with his work.

The Language Hoax

In The Language Hoax, John McWhorter argues against the notion that people who speak in different languages have differing conceptions of the world around them. That idea, that language influences thought, is called academically the "Whorfian Hypothesis" or "Sapir-Whorf Hypothesis" and has been around for nearly a century in varying forms.
