

The Lankavatara Sutra An Epitomized Version

The sword opens with Anant Padma entering the house in search of his nephew, Tissa Saraya. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with pus, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tissa runs out desperately, "Look behind you!" and when Anant Padma turns, Tissa escapes over the fence. After Tissa is gone, Anant Padma reflects carefully on Tissa's mischief and how she has been put away with too much.

Tissa comes home at supper time. During supper, Anant Padma addresses and scolds Anant Padma. Her mother is still angry from her fall. Tissa's half brother, that himself to discipline her.

Tissa goes out of the house following the streets of St. Peter's. Tissa and her new friend eventually closes the entrance all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tissa finds Anant Padma waiting for him. She notices his stained clothes and wishes to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Anant Padma sends Tissa out to whitewash the fence. Tissa passes by, and Tissa tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of scuffle. Tissa almost agrees, but Anant Padma appears and chases him off, leaving Tissa alone with her labor.
