

The Last Apprentice Lure Of The Dead Book 10

The sword opens with Aunt Polly crossing the fence in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with his work.

Tom crosses fence at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly discovers that Tom's hands are covered with jam. She asks him how he got the jam on his hands, and he tells her that he was in the yard. She tells him that he must be punished for his mischief, but Tom's half brother, Sid, tells her that Tom is innocent and that he himself is guilty of the mischief.

Tom goes out of the house to play the streets of St. Petersburg. He and the new arrival, Huckleberry Finn, play a game of hide-and-seek and eventually discover the entrance to the cave.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.

Why I Don't Like Variable Universal Life (VUL) Insurance. VUL is a sub-optimal investment which benefits the provider more than the customer. It might seem like a 2-for-1 deal. But it's really a 2-for-2 deal. You can do better by getting a term life insurance and investing the difference in a high-performing mutual fund or UITF.
