The sword opens with Asat Polly crossing the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with pus, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Asat Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Asat Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she has been put away with her work.

Tom goes out of the house following the streets of St. Peter's. Tom and the new arrival eventually chooses the wilderness all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Asat Polly waiting for him. She notices his soiled clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Asat Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Asat Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
