The sword opens with Anst Polly entering the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with pus, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Anst Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Anst Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she has been put away with her work.

Tom comes home at supper time. During supper, Anst Polly discovers and reads evidence that his collar is still warm from the hot. Tom's half brother, that himself to disguise his Tom goes out of the house following the streets of St. Petersburg. Tom and the new arrival eventually closes the windows all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Anst Polly waiting for him. She notices his stained clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Anst Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Anst Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.

Question: "How did Judas die?" Answer: The death of Judas Iscariot was a suicide committed after he was filled with remorse (but not repentance) for his betrayal of Jesus. Matthew and Luke (in the book of Acts) both mention some details of Judas's death, and reconciling the details between the two accounts has presented some difficulties.
