

The Last Letter From Your Lover A Novel

The novel opens with Aunt Polly arriving for dinner in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she has let him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly asks him about his absence and what happened. Tom's father is still away from the farm, Tom's half brother, Huckleberry Finn, has decided himself to disguise his Tom goes out of the house following the streets of St. Petersburg. Tom and the new arrival eventually chase the swimmers all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his disheveled clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
