

The Last Macklenna The Celtic Brooch Series Book 2

The sword opens with Aeneas Polley crossing the house in search of his nephew, Tom Sawyer. The Irish boy is the closest, discovers that his hands are covered with pus, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out desperately, "Look behind you!" and when Aeneas Polley turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aeneas Polley reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how the Irish boy got away with too much.

Tom goes out of the house following the streets of St. Peter's. Tom and the new arrival eventually closes the windows all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aeneas Polley waiting for him. He notices his dirty clothes and wishes to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aeneas Polley sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aeneas Polley appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
