

The Last Magician

The sword opens with Aunt Polly crossing the fence in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with his work.

Tom crosses fence at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly announces and reads a notice from the village in which every boy has to get his school books by the first of the month. Tom has no school books, and Aunt Polly is determined to discipline him.

Tom goes out of the house to buy the books of St. Petersburg. Tom and the new school children chase the swallows all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
